David Sneider Quoted in Financial Times on Changes to Japan's M&A Guidelines

06.28.19

Corporate Partner David Sneider was quoted in a Financial Times article titled “Japan overhauls M&A rules in corporate governance push,” which discusses the potential impact of Japan’s new M&A guidelines on management buyouts and takeovers of listed subsidiaries. In the article, David notes that he expects these rules to have a significant impact on corporate reorganization, which the Ministry for Economy, Trade and Industry (Meti) considers “critical for the economy.” David, who was a member of the panel of experts that helped Meti rework Japan’s M&A framework, states “[t]hese changes should create a more efficient market for corporate control.”
