

Meaghan Kelly Named to Global Investigations Review's “40 Under 40” 2020

04.23.20

Litigation Counsel Meaghan Kelly was named to Global Investigation Review's 2020 “40 Under 40,” which recognizes leading young investigations professionals from around the world. The feature highlighted some of the defining moments thus far in Meaghan’s career, as well as the experiences and people who have influenced her. In describing Meaghan, Steve Cutler, Global Head of Simpson Thacher’s Government and Internal Investigations Practice, noted her ability to coordinate complex multi-jurisdictional matters, her attention to detail and her sound strategic thinking and sharp legal analysis. Steve also said, “In addition to having clients who adore her, Meaghan is also an outstanding manager and leader and often sought after as a mentor by our more junior lawyers.”
