

Simpson Thacher Advises BlackRock's Global Energy & Power Infrastructure Fund in the Sale of Its Fort Detrick Energy Production Facility

05.28.20

Simpson Thacher represented Blackrock's Global Energy & Power Infrastructure Fund ("GEPIF") in connection with the sale of its interest in the Fort Detrick Energy Production Facility at U.S. Army Garrison in Maryland.

The facility supplies steam, chilled water, electricity conditioning services and emergency backup power to U.S. government facilities located at Fort Detrick under a 30-year fixed payment contract that expires in March 2049.

The Simpson Thacher team included Brian Chisling and Shaun Levor (M&A); Amy Beller (Credit); John Creed and Tyler Robbins (Tax); Larry Moss (Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits); and Mike Isby (Environmental).
