

Blackstone to Acquire Desotec

03.19.21

Simpson Thacher is representing Blackstone in connection with its agreement to acquire Desotec, a leading European environmental service company that primarily provides mobile filters through its closed-loop “Filtration-as-a-Service” rental solution, from EQT. Desotec’s fleet of approximately 2,700 mobile filters is the largest of its kind in Europe and it serves a broad range of industrial applications, including air emission, biogas, remediation, wastewater and chemicals.

The Simpson Thacher team includes Ben Spiers, Geoffrey Bailhache and Lloyd Wood (Corporate); Yash Rupal and Ellie Verran (Tax); Etienne Renaudeau and Pauline Patat (Antitrust); and Antti Pesonen (Credit).
