Brooke Cucinella and Cheryl Scarboro Speak at Benchmark Litigation's Women in Litigation Forum 2021

10.04.21

Litigation Partners Brooke Cucinella and Cheryl Scarboro spoke at Benchmark Litigation's eighth annual Women in Litigation Forum on September 30th. Brooke and Cheryl participated on a panel titled, "Compliance, Regulatory Investigations and Anti-Corruption," which addressed best practices in effectively conducting global risk assessments. The panel also discussed ways to navigate compliance pitfalls, anticorruption enforcement and regulatory changes, manage internal and external investigations, and whistleblower protections and initiatives.

The Women in Litigation Forum featured interactive discussions led by women lawyers, who addressed the top legal issues facing in-house counsel and shared tips about the leadership and career development skills needed for women to rise in their organizations.
