

Jason Glover Named Among 2022 “50 Most Influential in Private Equity” by Private Equity News

12.05.22

Partner Jason Glover was named among the “50 Most Influential in Private Equity” for the fifth consecutive year by Private Equity News. Jason was one of just three lawyers included on the list, which recognized top dealmakers, investors, business leaders and advisers shaping the European private equity market. The profile highlighted that, under Jason’s leadership, the Firm’s European Funds Practice advised on private equity fundraisings valued at more than $71 billion in 2021, with noteworthy representations in 2022 including having advised EQT on its €15.7 billion infrastructure fund, as well as Collier Capital on its $9 billion secondaries fund. Private Equity News also reported that Jason is “widely regarded as one of the top funds lawyers in the City of London,” and has advised on market-leading matters for Apax, BC Partners, Oakley Capital, Trill Impact and Triton, among others.
