Bryce Friedman and Nick Goldin authored an article titled, “Leveraging Cyber Insurance To Mitigate the Economic Impact of Cyber Incidents,” which was published by New York Law Journal this month. The article provides an overview of the types of insurance policies that might cover cyber incidents and highlights some of the issues that are likely to arise surrounding cyber-related insurance coverage.

Simpson Thacher has once again been ranked among the leading law firms in the United States in Chambers USA 2020. The Firm or its lawyers were recognized in 55 practice categories, with a total of 27 firm rankings in the top two bands, including Band 1 rankings for Insurance: Dispute Resolution in the U.S. and New York. In addition, the Firm’s attorneys received a total of 94 recognitions as leaders in their respective fields of practice.
