New York Court of Appeals Roundup: ‘Aybar’ Resolves General Jurisdiction Issue for New York

10.20.21

In their column in the New York Law Journal, Litigation Partners Bill Russell and Linton Mann III discuss Aybar v. Aybar, where the Court of Appeals considered whether a foreign corporation consents to general jurisdiction by New York courts when the corporation registers to do business and designates a local agent for service of process in New York in accordance with the requirements of New York’s Business Corporation Law.
