Paul Gluckow serves as Simpson Thacher's General Counsel, providing counsel and advice to the Firm and its lawyers on a wide range of legal, compliance, and risk management matters.

Prior to becoming the Firm's General Counsel, he was a member of Simpson Thacher's Litigation Department for 25 years, including for 17 years as a Partner. During his years as a litigator at the Firm, Paul represented financial institutions, corporations, and individuals in high-profile securities litigation, M&A-related disputes, antitrust litigation, government and internal investigations, and other complex commercial litigation matters.

He joined Simpson Thacher in 1996 and over the years has held various leadership positions within the Firm, including as Co-Chair of the Counsel/Senior Counsel Committee, Business Development Committee, Personnel Committee, and Associates Committee.

Paul received his J.D., summa cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law in 1994, where he was also Editor-in-Chief of the Seton Hall Law Review. He received his M. Phil. with highest distinction in 1992 from the University of Glasgow and his B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame in 1988. In 1994–1995, Paul served as a law clerk to the Hon. William G. Bassler of the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey, and in 1995–1996 he clerked for the Hon. Samuel A. Alito, Jr., of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.
