

William H. Hinman

Senior Advisor

900 G Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

whinman@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-202-636-5805

Fax: +1-202-636-5502

Former Director of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Division of Corporation Finance, Bill Hinman focuses on a wide range of corporate and securities law matters—including some of the most significant initial public offerings in history. Bill also represents clients in connection with corporate acquisitions and governance matters. Widely recognized as a leading corporate law practitioner, Bill has extensive experience across an array of industries, including technology, e-commerce, digital assets, healthcare and life sciences. He played a lead role in the IPOs of Alibaba, Facebook, Google, eBay, Square, Agilent, Seagate and VMware, among many others.

During his tenure at the SEC between 2017 and 2020,

PRACTICE FOCUS

Corporate Shareholder Activism Capital Markets
Public Company Advisory Practice Equity and Equity Linked
Initial Public Offerings Debt Corporate Governance
Mergers and Acquisitions

INDUSTRIES

Technology Healthcare

Bill led the Division of Corporation Finance on a wide range of issues vital to the success of the nation's capital markets.