

David H. Caldwell

Counsel

425 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10017

dcaldwell@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-212-455-2612

Fax: +1-212-455-2502

David Caldwell is Counsel in Simpson Thacher's New York office, where he is a member of the Firm's Government and Internal Investigations Practice. He advises companies, private equity sponsors, and boards of directors on investigations and a range of regulatory compliance matters, including anti-corruption, economic sanctions and anti-money laundering counseling and transactional due diligence. He has assisted both U.S. and foreign clients with government and internal investigations across Latin America, as well as in Asia and the Middle East. His work includes guiding companies on their internal controls and compliance policies and procedures, including remediation efforts following internal reviews

PRACTICE FOCUS

Litigation Corporate Governance
Government and Internal Investigations
International Regulatory and Compliance

INDUSTRIES

Financial Services Technology Telecommunications
Consumer Products Business and Professional Services
Real Estate Metals and Mining and resolutions with U.S. regulators.