

Stephen M. Cutler

Of Counsel

425 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10017

stephen.cutler@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-212-455-2773

Fax: +1-212-455-2502

Steve Cutler, former Global Head of the Firm's Government and Internal Investigations Practice, has advised companies, boards and senior executives on government and internal investigations, as well as corporate governance and regulatory matters. Prior to joining the Firm, Steve was Vice Chairman of JPMorgan Chase & Co., after serving as General Counsel of the company for nine years, including during the financial crisis. Earlier in his career, Steve was the Director of Enforcement at the Securities and Exchange Commission, where he led the agency's investigations of numerous high-profile financial reporting, broker-dealer and investment advisor matters. Steve is recognized by Euromoney's

PRACTICE FOCUS

Litigation International Regulatory and Compliance
Funds Regulatory and Investigations
Government and Internal Investigations Securities Litigation
Financial Institutions Corporate Governance
Private Equity Lifecycle Crisis Management

INDUSTRIES

Financial Services FinTech

Benchmark Litigation as a National “Litigation Star” in Securities and White Collar Crime and a New York “Litigation Star.” He is recognized as a leading lawyer by Chambers USA (Band 1), where sources say “[t]here may be no one who can bring to the table the depth and diversity of experience he has” and call him “a legend” in his field, further noting that he is “one of the finest lawyers out there in terms of legal skills.” Steve has also been recognized by The Legal 500 in several categories, where sources have noted that his “background is unparalleled,” his “experience and leadership is unmatched,” and he “has the highest level of integrity possible.”