

Charles Mathes

Partner

425 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10017

charles.mathes@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-212-455-2258

Fax: +1-212-455-2502

A Partner in Simpson Thacher's Public Company Advisory Practice in New York, Charlie focuses on advising public company clients across numerous industries on all aspects of their compliance with U.S. securities laws and the listing requirements of the major U.S. stock exchanges, particularly in connection with and following their initial public offerings. He regularly advises in-house counsel, management, boards of directors and board committees on a wide range of matters, including SEC and stock exchange reporting and disclosure requirements, board and executive compensation, corporate governance, shareholder activism, the impact of proxy advisory services, responses to formal and informal SEC

PRACTICE FOCUS

Corporate Capital Markets Corporate Governance

Private Equity Lifecycle Shareholder Activism

Public Company Advisory Practice Spin-offs

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and Sustainability

inquiries and other general corporate law matters.

Charlie's practice also focuses on new developments and changing best practices in governance matters. Charlie routinely advises on ESG-related governance developments, reporting requirements and disclosure trends, as well as on cybersecurity, diversity, equity and inclusion, and climate change and sustainability disclosures.