

Cheryl J. Scarboro

Of Counsel

900 G Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

cscarboro@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-202-636-5529

Fax: +1-202-636-5502

Cheryl Scarboro, formerly an Associate Director in the SEC's Division of Enforcement and the first Chief of the SEC's FCPA Unit, represents corporations, financial institutions and individuals in SEC and other regulatory enforcement proceedings. Cheryl conducts internal investigations and counsels clients on FCPA compliance programs, SEC reporting, disclosure and corporate governance requirements. Cheryl is recognized as a leading individual in FCPA by Chambers USA Nationwide and Chambers Global, where sources describe her as a "calm, cool, confident counsel" with an "immense amount of credibility" and as "universally unflappable when it comes to high-stakes situations." She was also recognized as one of

PRACTICE FOCUS

Government and Internal Investigations Crisis Management
International Regulatory and Compliance Asia Litigation
Whistleblower and False Claims Act Litigation Latin America

INDUSTRIES

Defense Financial Services Technology Telecommunications

the “25 Most Influential Women in Securities Law” by Law360, one of the “Top 10 Women in Litigation” by Euromoney’s Benchmark Litigation, and was named to the “Enforcement 40” by the Securities Enforcement Forum. She is also consistently listed in the “Top 250 Women in Litigation” by Benchmark Litigation. Cheryl was recently recognized as part of Corporate Counsel’s “Women, Influence & Power in Law Awards” and named to Global Investigations Review’s “Women in Investigations” and “The Top FCPA Practitioners” 2021 lists, with the profile highlighting that, “few lawyers, if any, can match [Cheryl’s] credentials.” Cheryl was also named to Savoy Magazine’s 2022 and 2018 “Most Influential Black Lawyers” lists. Cheryl is consistently recommended by The Legal 500 in white collar and was named a National “Litigation Star” by Benchmark Litigation. In addition, she is a member of the Global Advisory Board of the Women in Law Empowerment Forum, and a member of the Board of Visitors of Duke University School of Law.