

David Azarkh

Partner

425 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10017

dazarkh@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-212-455-2462

Fax: +1-212-455-2502

David Azarkh is a Partner in the Firm's Corporate Department, where he concentrates on capital markets transactions. He has a broad practice, assisting investment banks and corporate clients with securities offerings ranging from high yield and investment grade debt offerings, IPOs, pre-IPO financings, primary and secondary offerings, leveraged buyouts, liability management transactions and other types of capital markets transactions. Dave offers particular experience with regard to market knowledge of covenant terms and disclosure matters. He also regularly advises corporate clients on corporate governance and other general matters.

Dave is ranked by Chambers USA for Capital Markets:

PRACTICE FOCUS

Corporate Capital Markets Leveraged Finance High Yield
Debt Initial Public Offerings Corporate Governance
Acquisition Finance Alternative Capital and Private Credit

INDUSTRIES

Healthcare Consumer Products Metals and Mining
Real Estate Retail Energy – Oil and Gas

Debt & Equity, is lauded as “incredibly commercial” and “a bright star of Simpson Thacher’s future,” and is recognized by IFLR1000 as a “Highly Regarded Lawyer.” He regularly writes for industry publications such as Law360 and Lexis Practice Advisor®, including, “Market Trends: High Yield Debt Offerings”, “Market Trends: Block Trades”, “How to Draft Risk Factors for a Registration Statement” and “Responding to SEC Comment Letters”. Dave is also part of the TechGC network and regularly presents at TechGC’s conferences, webinars and other events on capital markets topics.