Jodi Schneider advises clients on the tax aspects of a broad range of corporate matters, with a particular emphasis on fund formation matters. She has assisted many of the Firm's private equity clients – including some of the world's most sophisticated sponsors – in the structuring of their funds and fundraisings, and has also advised tax-exempt clients – including university endowments and private foundations – in their capacity as private fund investors. She also works on a variety of other corporate transactions, including real estate transactions, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and credit and capital markets financing transactions.
