Patrick Ryan heads the Firm's Global Banking and Credit Practice. In addition to overseeing the Banking and Credit Practice, Patrick regularly represents leading financial institutions, investment banks and other lenders in connection with the arrangement and syndication of senior credit facilities, including acquisition, bridge and other corporate financings. He has significant experience in complicated financings in the leveraged finance, investment-grade, private credit and asset-based markets, often working with clients to develop innovative structures or to find solutions to difficult issues. "In high-grade acquisition finance," reports Chambers, "his knowledge of precedent in the legal market is unbelievable." He has also advised on
