Head of the Firm's U.K. Tax Practice, Yash Rupal represents a broad range of U.K. and international corporate clients, financial institutions, investment funds, hedge funds, asset managers and their respective executives on complicated, often cross-border, mergers and acquisitions, investment fund planning and tax planning matters. He also advises extensively on tax disputes, tax litigation and HMRC enquiries. With more than 30 years of experience advising many of the world's leading asset managers and financial institutions, Yash is widely regarded as one of the most preeminent tax practitioners in London. The Legal 500 describes Yash as "combining technical excellence with genuine commerciality" and as
